

In Cooperation with the Moscow Arbitration Forum 40

MOSCOW, RUSSIA
22 SEPTEMBER 2009

Who is Driving Arbitration? Party Autonomy versus Arbitrator's Power to Manage the Arbitral Process

Hosted by:

Balchug Street 7, Moscow, Russia

13:00 - 13:45 Registration / Light Lunch

13:45 - 14:00 Welcome and Introduction

Yulia Andreeva, Debevoise & Plimpton LLP, New York

Mark Appel, International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR), Dublin

Bart Legum, Salans, Paris

14:00 - 14:45 Keynote Speech

The Roadmap of Arbitration. Reflections on the Limits of the Arbitrator's Power to Control the Arbitral Process

Lecturer: Carolyn Lamm, White & Case LLP, Washington, D.C.

Facilitator: Richard Chlup, Mannheimer Swartling, Moscow

14:45 - 15:00 Coffee Break

15:00 - 16:30 Panel I - Passenger, Driver or Hitchhiker? Accommodating Client, Counsel and Arbitrator Expectations in the Arbitral Process

Panelists: Vladimir Khvalei, Baker & McKenzie, Moscow

Yasmin Mohammad, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, Paris

Stephen Polakoff, Integra Group, Moscow

Moderator: Yulia Andreeva, Debevoise & Plimpton LLP, New York

16:30 - 17:00 Coffee Break / Refreshments

17:00 - 18:15 Panel II - Rally Moscow-New York. A Critical Look at the Party Autonomy and Arbitrator Authority in the Context of the ICDR and MKAS Arbitration Rules

Panelists: Dmitry Dyakin, Magisters, Moscow

Jennifer Kirby, Herbert Smith, Paris

Moderator: Michelangelo Cicogna, De Berti Jacchia, Milan

18:15 - 18:30 Closing Remarks

Mark Appel, International Centre for Dispute Resolution (ICDR), Dublin

Igor Basargin, Incor Alliance, Moscow

19:30 Buffet Dinner and Reception

The Petrovich Club, Miasnitskaya Street 24, Moscow

Sponsored by:

