The implementation of the Mediation Directive

An afternoon seminar by the Arbitration Court attached to the Economic Chamber of the Czech Republic and Agricultural and Chamber of the Czech Republic and the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

Date: 12 April 2012 at 16:00 hrs. to 19:00 hrs.

Address: Kaiserštejnský palác | Malostranské náměstí 23/37 | Prague | Czech Republic

Members of the panel:

Ms. Mercedes Tarrazón FCI Arb (Spain)

Mr. Giovanni Di Berti FCI Arb (Italy)

prof. Monika Pauknerová (Czech Republic)

dr. Zbyšek Kordač (Czech Republic)

Moderator: dr. Vít Horáček (Czech Republic)

Programme: Member States of the EU were obliged to comply with Directive 2008/52/EC, dated 21 May 2008, which addressed certain aspects of mediation in civil and commercial matters ("Mediation Directive"). States were to comply with the Mediation Directive before 21 May 2011, and a number of States took different approaches to incorporate the Directive into their national legislation. This seminar will focus upon a comparison of the different methods adopted by some national legislators in folding the Mediation Directive into their respective laws. Members of the panel will also discuss those initial experiences in applying national legislation based upon the Mediation Directive.
