Force majeure due to the Covid-19 emergency in Russia

This topic is dedicated to the applicability of force majeure in the Covid-19 situation. The presentation analyses the force-majeure notion under Russian civil law, the options for evidencing and proving force-majeure, the circumstances that are ordinary business risks and do not fall under the excuse of force-majeure. Finally, we will examine the applicability of the order of the Mayor of Moscow issued on 14 March 2020 declaring that Covid-19 should be considered as a force majeure event.

The opportunities for mediation at the time of Covid-19

This contribution deals with the current tendencies of online dispute resolution procedures in the circumstances of the Covid-19 pandemic. The presentation consists of four main parts: 1) a brief overview on the institute of mediation and ADR in applicable Russian legislation and in Italy; 2) mediation procedure mechanism and its main features in both countries; 3) challenges and tendencies of the “shifting” in online of the mediation procedures; 4) practical utility of mediation as a tool to renegotiate contracts.
